- Eqilize* affirmed as the preferred digital advice offering among superannuation providers
- Mercer positioned to provide digital financial advice solutions across its Mercer Super Trust (MST) and the super funds it administers.

Decimal Software Limited (ASX: DSX; “Decimal” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that leading super and financial advice provider Mercer Australia has successfully implemented Decimal’s Eqilize solution.

Mercer Australia, which is one of Decimal’s foundation clients and partners, now has the capability to offer the Eqilize digital advice solution to more than two million Australians through its Mercer Super Trust (MST) and over 170 funds it administers.

Decimal CEO Nic Pollock said the successful implementation, which was completed within just a few months of the scope being agreed, positions Mercer at the forefront of innovative, meaningful engagement with members.

“Superannuation today is a competitive market and funds need scale to evolve,” Mr Pollock said.

“Technology, and in particular digital advice, empowers funds regardless of size or whether they’re retail or industry focused, with an ability to better engage members more meaningfully, and to grow and retain membership.

“The latest implementation demonstrates the relevance and effectiveness of the digital advice solutions that Eqilize offers the superannuation industry.

“While Eqilize is offered largely as an out-of-the-box solution, allowing fast rollout and ease of implementation, it is highly configurable to the needs of individual superannuation providers.

“This allows our clients to brand it as their own and configure their various customer journeys with integration to other required services such as phone and traditional channels,” Mr Pollock said.
